The Maritime Labour Convention, 2006 (MLC, 2006), adopted by the International Labour Organization (ILO) in 2006, is the fourth pillar of the international maritime regulatory regime. It both fills a gap in the 1982 United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea and complements the International Maritime Organizations (IMO) core conventions on ship safety, security, training and pollution prevention. Aimed at achieving both decent work for seafarers and fair competition for shipowners, the MLC ...
