The international carriage of goods by sea has been regulated by international conventions. These include the International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law relating to Bills of Lading (Hague Rules); the Protocol to Amend the International Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules of Law Relating to Bills of Lading (Visby Rules); and the UN Convention on the Carriage of Goods by Sea." They were adopted in 1924, 1968 and 1978 respectively and the transport industry's ...
